STAGE 1: SCREENING FOR POTENTIAL IMPACT(S)

Use this section to identify and document the potential impact of your policy and note the action planned or taken to eliminate (or justify) any potentially adverse impact. This section may also be used as an evidence log.

1.1 What is the main aim(s) or purpose of the policy?
The primary purposes of the Local Policing Plan for East Ayrshire are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to describe policing priorities within East Ayrshire and advise how these priorities will be addressed; and to confirm arrangements for scrutiny of policy by East Ayrshire Council
1.2 What outcome(s) are you trying to achieve?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To publicise the policing priorities for East Ayrshire and the actions that will be taken to address them; and To inform the public of the rationale for these priorities being identified

1.3 Collect Information: what evidence is available on how this policy might affect equality groups and what does this tell you? Consider inspections/audit recommendations, surveys, monitoring data, research. Are there any gaps in the evidence? (attach relevant research/evidence/monitoring)
Source/Title of evidence	Gaps in evidence remaining	Further evidence to be gathered
Government's draft priorities for policing	None
Public consultation in East Ayrshire (August-September 2012)	None

East Ayrshire Council Single Outcome Agreement (SOA)	None
Comment on draft plan from East Ayrshire Council	None
National EIA on introduction of local Police plans	None
Police Scotland E&D consultation and equality outcomes 2013	None

1.4 Is there any potential for the policy or practice to discriminate, directly or indirectly, or disadvantage any particular group/s?

No. The Plan highlights the priorities for policing that is delivered in terms of the integrated service delivery model. This model has been designed to address the needs of all sections of society and particular care has been taken to ensure that practices are non-discriminatory. The values of Police Scotland underpin the Force's commitment to fairness and non discrimination.

Care was also taken during the public consultation exercise, to obtain a wide and representative cross-section of public opinion.

1.5 Is there any opportunity to advance equality for any group/s by removing an existing inequality/disadvantage? Yes/No

Yes. Steps can be taken to ensure as broad a representation as possible in the public consultation exercise. Police Scotland has a focus on hate crime through its control strategy and this will assist in refining service provision as time passes.

1.6 Is there any potential for impact (negative or positive) on relations between different groups? E.g. Can it lead to tension between any groups and cause damage to relations or will it help to foster good relations? Yes/No

No potential for negative impact. The plan has been designed to be fair to all sectors of the community. It will not be divisive or cause tensions. The plan may have a positive impact by helping different groups to understand others' concerns and how policing can contribute to community wellbeing.

1.7 Which of the protected groups is the potential impact relevant to and to what level?

	High	Medium	Low	No Relevance	Reasons
Age			X		The plan has been designed to reflect the views of the community and every effort has been made to ensure it is representative. The vulnerability of this group has been recognised and the plan will assist in minimising any potential impact.

Note: If the impact of the policy is considered to be of no relevance to any equality group/s, then there is no need to progress to a full equality impact assessment. However if the screening above has high, medium or low against any of the aims of the public sector general equality duty, then a full impact assessment should be done.

In a very few cases where the relevance is considered to be low, it may be necessary to postpone the full impact assessment – if this is decided the reasons should be recorded and the date for reviewing this decision inserted below.

1.8 Quality Assurance and Decision: On completion of Screening for Relevance, seek advice from your Equality and Diversity resources working within police reform
