FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

- 1. How many fines have been issued as a result of the 20mph cameras in your force's area (a) in 2022 so far (b) in 2021 and (c) in 2019?
- 2. If the cost limit has not yet been reached, what is the total figure in fines issued for each of the three years?
- 3. If the cost limit has not yet been reached, how many motorists have been fined/prosecuted for driving at 24mph for each of the three years?
- 4. If the cost limit has not yet been reached, how many new 20mph speed cameras have been installed in your force's area (a) in 2022 so far (b) in 2021 and (c) in 2019?
- 5. If the cost limit has not yet been reached, how much in fines has the highest grossing 20mph camera raised so far in 2022 and how many fines were issued based on its footage.

Following a clarification request you confirmed that your request was referring to fixed speed cameras (i.e. static roadside cameras) only.

I can confirm that Police Scotland have no fixed cameras that enforce 20mph limits and so the answer to your questions are 0 in each case.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision.
