Date: 25 March 2022

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

With reference to your previous response to my query (IM-FOI-2022-0218 - 0223), I note that there was a recorded incident of crime at Queen Elizabeth University hospital on 15/03/2018.

Please can you provide full details of the incident, including the nature of the crime; the name of the individual/group reporting the incident and the details of any group or organisation the reporting individual belonged to.

Please can you advise as to whether the procurator fiscal took the case to court and what the outcome was of this, including any convictions that arose from the incident.

The recorded crime is in terms of section 38 of the Criminal Justice and Licensing (Scotland) Act 2010 - Threatening and Abusive Behaviour.

It is undetected - the suspect was not traced.

Witnesses participating in a '40 days for life' prayer vigil at the locus allege they were approached by an unknown female suspect who shouted at them, grabbed their sign and threw it on to the road.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.pnn.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision.
