FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

What is the frequency of traffic wardens monitoring the compliance of traffic rules by HGV drivers on Sandpiper Drive in Duloch, Dunfermline? Every weekday and how many times per day?

In terms of Section 17 of the Act, I can confirm that the information you seek is not held by Police Scotland.

By way of explanation, Police Scotland no longer operate traffic wardens in the area specified.

Parking matters are now managed by Fife Council, if your request relates to parking matters you may wish to direct your request to information.requests@fife.gov.uk

Also how many traffic violation tickets have been issued to HGV drivers over the past 6 weeks, giving a breakdown of totals per week and dates?

Unfortunately I must again respond in terms of Section 17 of the Act, I can confirm that the information you seek is not held by Police Scotland.

To explain, data has been examined for the location and the time frame specified however no offences were noted to relate to HGV vehicles.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.pnn.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.
