FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has not been repeated here due to the fact that it details personal information.

For purposes of responding to this query it has been assumed that your request relates to an incident that involved you.

Having considered your request in terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, I am refusing to confirm or deny whether the information sought exists or is held by Police Scotland in terms of section 18 of the Act.

Section 18 applies where the following two conditions are met:

- It would be contrary to the public interest to reveal whether the information is held

Whilst we accept that you may have a particular personal interest in being informed as to whether or not the information sought is held, the overwhelming public interest lies in protecting individuals' right to privacy and the expectation of confidence that the public have in Police Scotland as regards their information.

- If the information was held, it would be exempt from disclosure in terms of one or more of the exemptions set out in sections 28 to 35, 38, 39(1) or 41 of the Act

In this instance, section 38(1)(a) of the Act applies insofar as you have apparently requested your own personal data which is exempt from disclosure in all circumstances.

You do however have a right to access any information Police Scotland holds about you in terms of Article 15 of the General Data Protection Regulation and/ or section 45 of the Data Protection Act 2018 - further details can be found on our website.

If your request does indeed relate to an incident you were involved in, please email the following address, dataprotectionsubjectaccess@scotland.police.uk requesting the information, and including two forms of identification which between them must include your name, date of birth and address, as advised on our website.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.
