FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

Of the data on the second table, would it be possible to break down the deceased column further by those who took their own lives or died accidentally against deaths where criminality was at play please?

In accordance with Sections 12(1) (Excessive cost of compliance) and 16(4) (Refusal of request) of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (the Act), this letter represents a Refusal Notice.

By way of explanation, we are unable to break down the data any further. To provide this we would need to read each individual report and physically examine to provide your response..

In excess of 390 reports would have to be examined and if I was to use a conservative estimate of 10 minutes per report it would take approximately 65 hours and cost £975.

This is in excess of the 40 hours/£600 prescribed by the Scottish Ministers under the Act.
