FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

1. How many registered CCTV operators are there in the following postcodes and which businesses are they associated with:

- G3 8AB
- G3 8ND
- G3 8TD
- G3 8TE
- G3 8TB
- G3 8TQ
- G3 8TH
- G3 8RF
- G3 7TF
- G3 7TJ
- G3 7TQ

2. What rights do members of the public have when they are being filmed by businesses operating CCTV cameras on the street?

3. What can members of the public do if they know they are being filmed but do not know who owns the camera?

4. If a business is operating a CCTV camera in the street/other communal area,

- a. Do they have to have a sign up telling people they are filming?
- b. Do they need to have a contact listed if a person has questions?
- c. Do they have to tell people what they do with the film recorded?

Police Scotland does not keep a register of privately operated CCTV.

As such, in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, this represents a notice that the information you seek is not held by Police Scotland.

OFFICIAL

You may wish to contact the ICO as any business operating CCTV, and therefore processing personal data, ought to register with them and pay a Data Protection fee – further information is available on their website.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management Dundee, quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by post to Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner's decision, there is an appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.

As part of our commitment to demonstrate openness and transparency in respect of the information we hold, an anonymised version of this response will be posted to the Police Scotland Freedom of Information Disclosure Log in seven days' time.
