FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

I was looking to ascertain:

- the number of motor vehicles that may have been charged with exceeding a 20mph maximum speed limit across the West Lothian area - since January 2021.

In response to the above question I can advise that the number of drivers charged with exceeding the 20mph maximum speed limit with 20 mph zones across the West Lothian area since January 2021, this includes any Fixed Penalty notices issued is zero.

- the number of motor vehicles that may have been charged with exceeding the 40mph maximum speed limit that is in place in the small village of Threemiletown in West Lothian area - since January 2021.

In response to the above question I can advise that the number of drivers charged with exceeding the 40mph maximum speed limit with 40 mph zones across within Threemiletown area since January 2021, this includes any Fixed Penalty notices issued is zero.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.pnn.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision.
