FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

- 1- Who is directly responsible for returning items and property seized during the course of criminal investigation to the accused should the case be withdrawn by the Prosecution Fiscal / The Police ?
- 2- What time frame according to the law should the party responsible for returning the items adhere to, to secure return of the items from the date of the end of the court proceedings ?
- 3- What are your obligations under the law to insure the items are returned in the same condition as they were in when you seized them ?

Please be advised that the information you seek is publicly available within the National Productions Guidance.

As such, in terms of Section 16 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, I am refusing to provide you with the information sought. Section 16 requires Police Scotland when refusing to provide such information because it is exempt, to provide you with a notice which:

- (a) states that it holds the information,
- (b) states that it is claiming an exemption,
- (c) specifies the exemption in question and
- (d) states, if that would not be otherwise apparent, why the exemption applies.

I can confirm that Police Scotland holds the information that you have requested and the exemption that I consider to be applicable is set out at Section 25(1) of the Act - information otherwise accessible:

“Information which the applicant can reasonably obtain other than by requesting it under Section 1(1) is exempt information”

The information you are seeking is available on the Police Scotland website, via the following link:
