FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

Can you please tell me if Police Scotland has released the information alluded to in this article?

In response to your request I can advise you that OSIC Decision Notice 11/2022 was fully complied with by Police Scotland on 2 March 2022.

OSIC confirmed compliance on 7 March 2022 and the case file was closed.

You should note that the Decision Notice did not require Police Scotland to disclose information - it required Police Scotland to carry out a further review and to provide the applicant with a revised review outcome otherwise than in terms of section 14(2) of FOISA.

A copy of the revised review response sent to the applicant is enclosed for information.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by post to Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.
