I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

I'd like to request a report on the background to/rationale for:

- the traffic calming measures (road bumps and blocking off/one-way) that were introduced to Griffiths Street, Falkirk

In terms of Section 17 of the Act, I can confirm that the information you seek is not held by Police Scotland.

By way of explanation traffic calming measures relating to road bumps and one way systems are the responsibility of the local authority. In order to secure the information you require please direct your request to the relevant local authority.

- the traffic calming measure (speed camera) that was introduced to Camelon Road, Falkirk

In response to this question, I can advise that the site at Camelon Road, Falkirk was identified through the annual site selection process in accordance with the Safety Camera Programme Handbook, linked below. This site met the criteria for camera enforcement and a fixed camera was chosen as the most appropriate option.
