FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

On 22nd November 2021 the Daily Record published video of two objects in the sky over Glasgow which also appeared to show a police helicopter in the sky nearby. The report can be accessed at the following link:

https://www.dailyrecord.co.uk/news/scottish-news/footage-ufos-captured-sky-above-25519100?_ga=2.223509595.1971531475.1641498730-381393406.1607631753

I would like a copy of any police-held documentation, e.g. video footage, flight logs or internal reports, for police helicopter flights over Glasgow on 22nd November 2021 between 10.30am and 11.30am. I am willing to accept paper format, digital copies or CD-ROM hard copies of these records.

In response to your request, I can confirm that the Police Scotland helicopter did not fly on the date specified. As such, in terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, this represents a notice that the information requested is not held by Police Scotland.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by post to Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

OFFICIAL

Should you wish to appeal against the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner's decision, there is an appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.

As part of our commitment to demonstrate openness and transparency in respect of the information we hold, an anonymised version of this response will be posted to the Police Scotland Freedom of Information Disclosure Log in seven days' time.
