FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

Could you please provide the following information

- The number of accidents at the Elie/Colinsburgh junction (A917/B942) since Jan21

In response to your request, there are zero records of any recordable road traffic accidents for the location specified and time period, 01 January 2021 and 31 July 2022.

- The number of charges made against persons involved in such accidents at this junction
- The breakdown of any such charges (eg, charge, penalty points, fine)

As the above two questions are follow up questions to the response in question 1, in terms of Section 17 of the Act, I can confirm that the information you seek is not held by Police Scotland.

- Whether any review of the safety and suitability of that junction has been performed by Police Scotland, or whether a recommendation/request has been made to Fife Council to review/upgrade/maintain that junction and its verges

In response to this question, again I must respond in terms of Section 17 of the Act, I can confirm that the information you seek is not held by Police Scotland.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.
