FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

Further communication from you added; in relation to the below FOI, I actually meant 2020, not 2021. So Saturday 19 December 2020.

How many 101 calls were made relating to the Police North East command area of Edinburgh between 0430 and 0630 on Saturday 19 December 2021?

For any such call, can you tell me the approximate time it was made, what it was about and whether police attended?

I can advise that within the date and time period requested, the North East Command Edinburgh received 3 101 calls. Three incidents were reported, two of which were attended by police.

These calls were received at 05:50 hours, 05:55 hours and 06:08 hours.

I am interested to know about calls relating to incidents or disturbances in Holyrood Park, if possible.

I can advise that within the time and date frame requested, one call was received regarding an incident within Holyrood Park.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision.
