FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

Please accept our apologies for the delay in responding.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

You recently provided me with the attached FOI ("Applicant - FOI Response), which gives the ethnicity breakdown of people stopped under Schedule 7 of the Terrorism Act in July and August 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019.

I would now like to request the same breakdown for July and August 2020 and March and April 2021.

Section 53 of the Terrorism Act 2000 brought into effect Schedule 7 (as amended by the Anti-Terrorism Crime and Security Act 2001) which enables an examining officer to stop, search and examine a person at a port or in a border area to determine whether they are someone who is or who has been concerned in the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism.

All forces have the ability to apply these powers and when an encounter extends beyond a short period of time this process is commonly known as an examination.

Police Scotland's priority is to keep the people of Scotland safe and we are committed to providing an effective coordinated response to the terrorist threat by ensuring appropriate resources are engaged in partnership with communities and other agencies to stop people from becoming sympathetic to terrorists or supporting terrorism.
