FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

For each year, listed by month, of the last five years (2017-22):

- The number of collisions involving police vehicles from Tayside Police Division.
- The cost of repair to those vehicles and the number of vehicles written off/scrapped by Tayside Police Division.
- The number of collisions involving police vehicles from Fife Police Division.
- The cost of repair to those vehicles and the number of vehicles written off/scrapped by Fife Police Division.

For example:

Month	Number of crashes	Number of cars written off	Total cost of repairs
January	8	1	£XXXX
February	12	3	£XXXX

For the avoidance of doubt, data for 2022 should include reports from January onwards to the date which data is retrieved, or November 16 2022.

Please find the requested information in the attached spreadsheet.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.
