Date: 4th November 2022

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

The reference number is IM-FOI-2022-1952

The original FOI was about police dogs and their work tracking down drugs.

Would it be possible to be told the date of the seizure of drugs, and the officer who handles PD Sam.

I can confirm that PD Sam's handler was PC Janet Findlay and the search referred to, was carried out in February 2012.

I would like to know the consequences of the seizure at court and the sentences the defendants got, including their names, ages, rough addresses i.e. Glasgow and where any court case was heard.

The case was heard at Glasgow High Court and Judge John Becket QC sentenced the Accused, a 40 year old male who resided in Glasgow, to seven years in prison for being involved in the supply of drugs.

Should you require any further assistance please contact Information Management Dundee, quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Police Scotland has dealt with your request, you are entitled, in the first instance, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Your request must specify the matter which gives rise to your dissatisfaction and it must be submitted within 40 working days of receiving this response - either by email to foi@scotland.police.uk or by post to Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH.

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by post to Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner's decision, there is an appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.
