Road Policing Policy

The Police Service of Scotland, (hereafter referred to as Police Scotland) is committed to policing Scotland's roads in an effort to reduce instances of death, injury, damage, antisocial behaviour and crime on the roads throughout the country.

Police Scotland will endeavour to influence road user behaviour and make Scotland's roads safer with the specific objectives of reducing road casualties, robustly tackling those who use the road network to commit crime, and combating the threat of terrorism, as stated in the Road Safety & Road Crime Strategy 2015-18.

All related activities will take cognisance of Police Scotland's values of Integrity, Fairness and Respect; underpinned by its Code of Ethics and Human Rights considerations.
